NATURAL WINES

Natural Wine is farmed organically (biodynamically, using permaculture or the like) and made (or rather transformed) without adding or removing anything in the cellar. No additives or processing aids are used, and 'intervention' in the naturally occurring fermentation process is kept to a minimum.

Organic wine does have yeast added into it during fermentation, while natural wine does not. ... The wines labeled "made from organic grapes" means that the wine produced organically; however it may still have added sulfites

Orange wine, also known as skin-contact white wine, skin-fermented white wine, or amber wine, is a type of wine made from white wine grapes where the grape skins are not removed, as in typical white wine production, and stay in contact with the juice for days or even months.

PREMIUM WINES

WHITE WINES

2037. Y D' YQUEM, 2019

France, Pauillac 2017

318.00

Dry white of Château d'Yquem. Few and rare white produced from this estate with the blend of Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon. Yummy wine that will "wow" you!

RED WINES

5093. ALTER EGO

France, Margaux, 2017

210.00

Alter Ego is the 2nd label of Château Palmer which made its debut with the 1998 vintage. The birth of Alter Ego coincided with the purchase of 8 hectares of vines, which became the heart and soul of Alter Ego.

5096. CHATEAU TROTTEVIEILLE

France, Saint Emilion, 2018

220.00

A parchment of 1453 confirms the existence of viticulture and that the name "Trotte Vieille" was used for this estate already in the 15th century. Trotte Vieille is one of the oldest estates in Saint-Emilion and has some of the oldest vines of Bordeaux as some of these are pre-Phylloxera and thus more than 140 years old.

5094. CHATEAU GAZIN

France, Pomerol, 2018

220.00

Château GAZIN, which was a hamlet in the 18th century, is probably located on the site of the "Hospital of Pomeyrols", built by the knights to receive pilgrims on the Santiago de Compostela route.

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| 5095. CHATEAU GRAND PUY LACOSTE | 220.00 |
| France, Pauillac, 2018 | |
| One of the oldest estates in the Médoc! | |
| The name Grand-Puy, already mentioned in documents from the Middle Ages, comes from the ancient term "puy" which means "hillock, small height". True to its name, the vineyard sits on outcrops with a terroir similar to that of the Médoc's first growths. | |
| 5097. CHATEAU DUHART MILON | 220.00 |
| France, Pauillac, 2015 | |
| In the early 18th century, the Pauillac district began widespread grape cultivation at the urging of the owners of Lafite. The Milon wines served as additional income for Lafite's master, and became Château Lafite's second wine. | |
| The quality of the Château's wines declined considerably until the Rothschild family purchased the property in 1962. | |
| 5098. CHATEAU PONTET CANET | 260.00 |
| France, Pauillac, 2017 | |
| Ten years following the 1855 classification, the property was purchased by Herman Cruse in 1865, in whose family the estate remained for many years. The Bordeaux wine fraud scandal in 1973 forced the sale, in 1975 of Ponet-Canet to Cognac merchant Guy Tesseron owner of Château Lafon-Rochet. The estate remains in his control today. | |
| 5099. CHATEAU LASCOMBES | 210.00 |
| France, Margaux, 2016 | |
| Château Lascombes vineyard covers 120 hectares (296 acres) in the Margaux appellation, as well as 10 hectares (24 acres) in the Haut-Médoc appellation. Today, it is one of the largest vineyards among the classified growths of 1855. | |
